Use Case for Choosing Program or Frequency

The user begins by selecting either "PROGRAMS" or "FREQUENCY" from the main menu. The Denas device will then bring up either the list of programs or frequencies and display them on the device. In order to begin treatment, the user selects one of the built in programs or frequencies. Both of these options begin treatment for the user with the selected program or frequency.